As part of Self Assessment, we are not required to complete the above forms. However, if you would like our advice regarding these tax credits, please contact us.

Life Insurance & Critical Illness Insurance

57. Many people do not have as much life and critical illness insurance as they need even though this can be relatively inexpensive to arrange.
- Do you have enough cover to pay all your liabilities and provide for your loved ones should you die or be diagnosed with a critical illness?
- Pacific Financial Planning are Independent Financial Advisers and they offer a review service. May we contact you to discuss the benefits of this cover?

Yes / No

Yes / No

Retirement

58. If you are approaching retirement and have pension policies it is extremely important to take independent advice and not accept the pension offered by your normal provider without first checking the marketplace.
- Would you like us to contact you to discuss how Pacific Financial Planning can help you to maximise your retirement income?
59. If you are not already drawing your state pension we recommend that you consider confirming your contributions record periodically with the National Insurance Contributions office.
- Would you like us to check this for you and advise you regarding any years with incomplete or no contributions?
